EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The first PRoVisG Summer School took place at Aberystwyth University, UK, 11th – 14th July 2010. The summer school was aimed at young researchers (MSc, PhD students and Research Associates). As this was the first summer school we learnt the ‘dos and don’ts’ of organising such events. This knowledge will feed into the organisation of the next PRoVisG Summer School (@ TU Berlin 2011). This document contains details of the summer school announcement, the summer school schedule, a selection of workshop photographs, and a list of lessons learnt.
